Term 2 – Behind the Scenes!

It's time to take a step back from the spot light and discover the world hiding behind the curtain. We'll take turns exploring the different theatre roles and learn the responsibility of leadership as the director, expand our imaginations by creating our very own costumes, set's and scripts, and discovering how everything comes together to bring a show to life. All this and more to ensure we are well prepared ahead of our Faust Festival performance in Term 3.

Term 2 Schedule

January 6th 5.00pm THEATRE VISIT

The Way Back Home

"Well- paced and full of the variety a very young audience needs" – The Stage

January 7th Welcome

It's our first workshop of term two and it's time to jump straight in to getting to know our new friends and reconnecting with our old. We will do a number of activities to build up our comfort levels and begin our step into the magical world behind the scenes.

January 14th The Director

Every performance needs a director and today we will learn the joys of being a leader, how to take charge of a stage full of performers and how to listen and follow each other's instructions.

January 21st Costume Designer

Whilst exploring our story of the day we will discuss, design and even dress each other up in different costumes. By using our imaginations we can figure out the correct costume to fit our character's personality or profile.

January 28th – February 4th Lunar New Year

February 11th Choreographer

It's time to throw ourselves into the world of music and dance. We will use our knowledge from being little directors and apply it to choreographing our very own dance number. Movement, focus, coordination and teamwork will all play important roles this week.

February 18th Set Designer

Every person design's things in different ways and today we will look at a new story and decide what would the set look like. Do we need objects or can we just use our bodies to create it.

February 25th Backstage Crew

Behind the stage are the people that help run the show and in this lesson we will explore their role and the excitement of working behind the curtain.

March 4th Script Writer

As a group we will re-write our favourite story of the term. Discovering the importance of characters, setting and plot.

March 11th The Actor

Now it's time to step into the role of the performer. We will go through a number of activities to discover how it feels to be on stage and in the spotlight

March 18th Faust Festival Story Time

Today we will announce our Faust Festival play and explore the story we will perform in Term 3! We will look at the characters in the play and even learn some songs and actions along the way. It's time to use all the skills and knowledge we've learnt across the two terms to help create a performance.

March 25th Faust Festival Preparation

More work will be done on our show as we prepare everybody for their exciting journey in Term 3. It is a big team effort to put together a production so let's make sure we are all on the same page and ready to put on a show!

These events are subject to change.

Current members receive priority registration until late February for term 3 registrations.

Emma O'Rourke – Group Leader

Emma O'Rourke has loved being involved in theatre since she was 5 years old. She spent her childhood on the stage acting in many school productions and finally went on to graduate from Charles Sturt University in Australia with a BA: Acting for Screen and Stage. After completing her degree she travelled to Italy and joined a touring theatre company where she performed Educational English Shows and ran drama workshops for school aged students throughout the whole country.

Since moving to Hong Kong in 2009 she has been in a number of stage productions, TV commercials and can even be spotted in a couple of local movies. She has worked as a group leader for Faust for the last 5 years and also performs in the T.I.E Poetry Show Splat. Emma loves teaching students about theatre and helping them to discover their inner confident selves.

Brian Lau – Assistant Leader

Theatre is the place where Brian feels like home. Stepping into his 11th year of being a performer, apart from his active involvement with Shax Theatre Group in A Midsummer Night's Dream and The Two Gentlemen of Verona, Brian has also engaged in front and backstage productions in forms of drama, musical and physical theatre. As a prospective teacher studying Bachelors of Arts and Education in English Education at the University of Hong Kong, he intends to incorporate drama in his teaching by guiding young minds to think out of the box and unfurl their imaginations. With his belief of makeup as a tool to empower people by bringing one's character out, he also uses his talent in helping various stage productions with makeup and costume design.
